

With You Wednesday

Mid-week Connection—July 1, 2020

We celebrate the lives of every church family, all friends and members of FPC Statesboro.

At FPC we are committed to becoming a Matthew 25 church which — (quoting Pastor Taylor) “we firmly admit — is a process of becoming, of learning and listening, serving and risking to be bold in answering Christ’s call to love our neighbor.”

Easter (April 12) seems so long ago now, but “Abby and Sons” created this chalk art cross on the Kennedy’s driveway.

Our church celebrated the gift of the Holy Spirit with a virtual Pentecost Sunday Service (May 31).

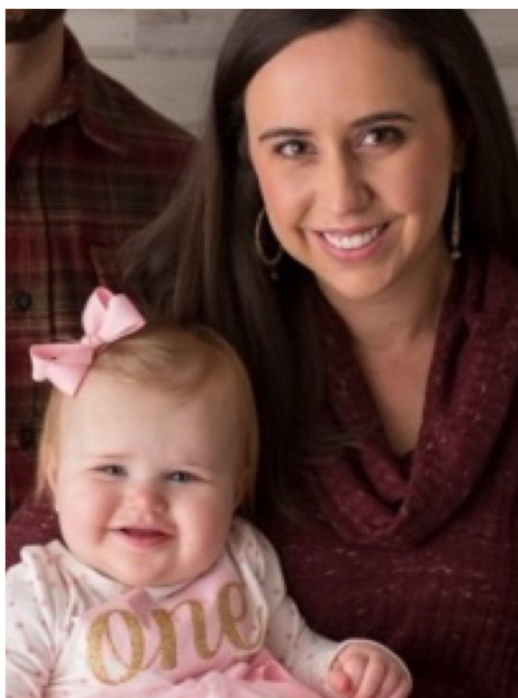

Yvette Allen has been working on her container garden with a variety of herbs, tomatoes and peppers. She's been enjoying cooking with these herbs and can't wait to start picking tomatoes and peppers!

Katie and Nick report that Danny Newell is enjoying having his parents home all the time and glad social distancing rules don't apply to his dog Tippy.

Long-time members Tal and Jo Callaway have been at home sheltering during the pandemic. Tal enjoys his motorized scooter, and Jo enjoys visiting with friends on the telephone. Daughter Starr Anderson, son Sanders Callaway, and the grandchildren and great-grandchildren have popped in and showered them with attention.

Meanwhile, over at Rob & Christy Brooks' home, Jack, Emmylou, and Pete cool off in the kiddie pool. Later, they actually put these costumes on and tried to sneak outside... lol it's too hot!!!
